

AI:

Philosophy, Geoinformatics & Law

2014-07-12

dr Marlena Jankowska

dr hab. Mirosław Pawełczyk

dr Sylvie Allouche

dr Marcin Kulawiak

(eds.)

Dear Author,

herewith we are glad to invite you to contribute to our book on legal, philosophical and (geo)technological aspects of Artificial Intelligence. The project is already the 3rd one after:

- “Geoinformation. Law and Practice”, Wydawnictwo Polskiej Fundacji Prawa Konkurencji i Regulacji Sektorowej Ius Publicum, Warsaw 2014, ss. 232 - in English
- „Geoinformacja. Prawo i praktyka”, Wydawnictwo Polskiej Fundacji Prawa Konkurencji i Regulacji Sektorowej Ius Publicum, Warszawa 2014 – in Polish

The international cooperation in the field has proven so far not only to be very successful, but also inspiring. This time we would like to join our insights into the future of IT, AI and legal institutes surrounding the technological change we all take part in. This project will be definitely distinctive in its scope and topic.

The book is to be edited by Marlena Jankowska and Mirosław Pawełczyk (Faculty of Law and Administration at University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland), Sylvie Allouche (Université de Technologie de Troye, France) and Marcin Kulawiak (Faculty of Electronics, Telecommunications and Informatics at Gdańsk University of Technology, Poland).

The intention of the book is to bring together thoughts on AI in terms of 1) law, 2) philosophy and 3) geoinformation. The authors will prepare inputs that will constitute separate chapters of the book referring to one of above aspects of AI. Therefore there's no need to join research on law and geoinformation in one paper. The core is AI.

Then, we will join the chapters in the following order:

- 1) Philosophy
- 2) Law
- 3) Geoinformatics

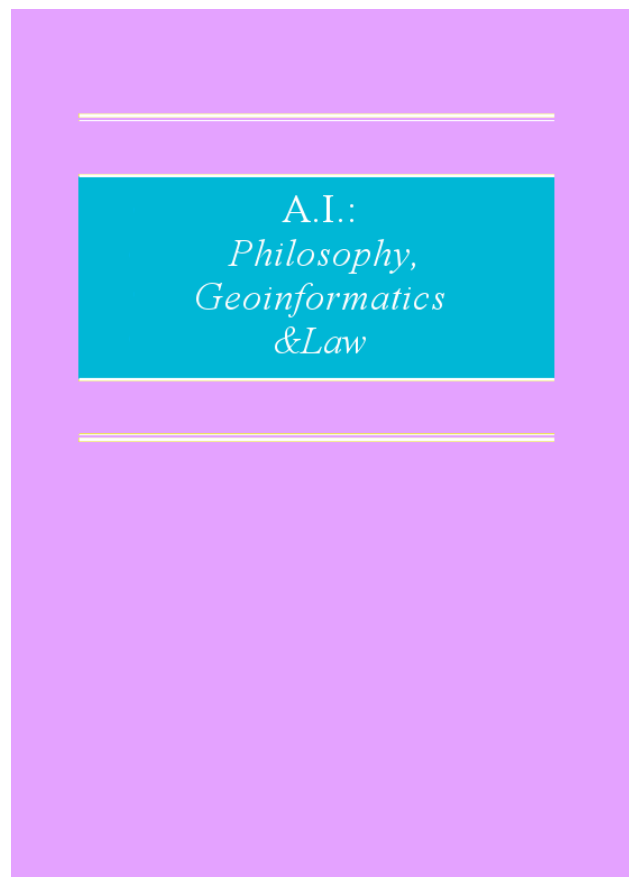

The contributions do not have to be long (10-20 pages), the template will be sent to you still in Dec. 2014.

The deadline for the authors is May 2015.

The book will be published by IUS PUBLICUM in Warsaw before Oct. 2015.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact me 😊 at marlena.jankowska@interia.pl or at 0048 608 206 869.

For the time being you may take a look at the draft of the cover of the book here:

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!

The book will be reviewed by dr hab. Tomasz Pietrzykowski (<http://www.wpia.us.edu.pl/us-addressbook/emp/21212/publications>) and

If you decline the invitation to become the author please reconsider the invitation to become the second reviewer of the book or the additional reviewer, which words of opinion will be published on the cover of the book along with your name and affiliation.